

Disclaimer of The Hong Kong Translation Society Ltd.

[To outside parties wishing to disseminate information through HKTS]

The Hong Kong Translation Society Ltd. is an academic society and does not provide job referral. We may, however, provide from time to time as a free service to our Members Information on activities, products, discount or benefits, service requests, job opportunities and training and research opportunities relating to translation and the translation profession (“Information”). If you wish to provide such Information to our Members, please return to us the Request Form below.

---

REQUEST FORM

To: membership@hkts.org.hk (Membership Secretary)

I/We hereby request the Hong Kong Translation Society Ltd. to supply the following Information (or as attached in printed or electronic form) to your Members and acknowledge that under no circumstances shall the Society be held responsible for the authenticity of the Information provided and/or for any consequence caused by or arising out of any reliance on the Information.

Information provider/service seeker (name, position and/or organization):

Contact email/tel:

Information lapse date/service period:

Information/service detailed specifications (e.g. translation or interpretation service request; discount or privilege; talk, conference or seminar; research or training opportunity; questionnaire, etc.):